

When it comes to accessibility, accuracy and experience, TOPA raises the bar in pathology services.

Owned and operated by pathologists, TOPA recognizes the importance of providing the highest quality results with exceptional customer service. With over 20 years of experience serving regional facilities, we understand the specialized needs of endoscopy centers. We provide comprehensive pathology services, dedicated to your facility and integrated with your procedures to meet the needs of your facility, your physicians and your patients.

Meeting the needs of your endoscopy center and staff

Rapid results reported to any facility, treating physician, and referring doctor with a variety of reporting options available to all

- Turnaround time of 24-48 hours

Assistance with daily operations, regulatory, and administrative services

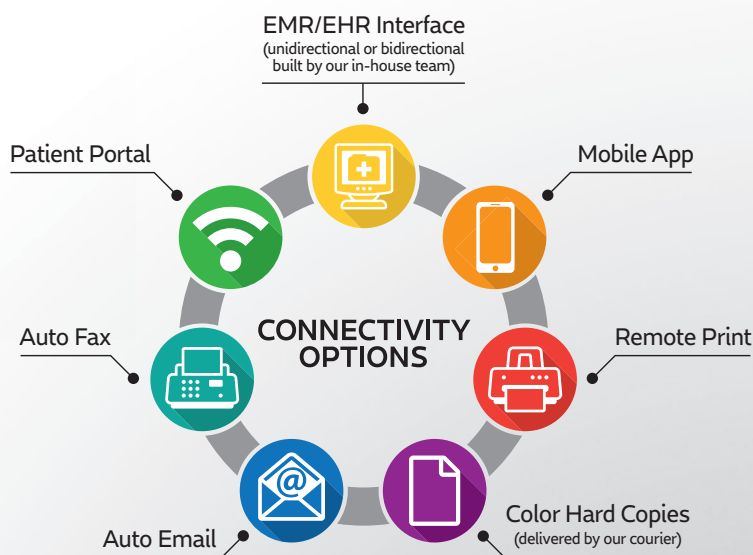

- Procedure manuals detailing proper specimen collection and preparation, customized to fit your work flow, may be integrated into your policies and procedures
- On site training of staff on proper specimen collection and preparation
- A pathologist is available for medical staff/leadership committees

Specialized data reporting

- Quality assurance and quality improvement reports, malignant findings, summary reports, adenoma detection reports

Your dedicated client service representative is always available as a resource

Extended operating hours M-F from 7:30AM to 9PM, with phones answered by TOPA staff Extensive report delivery and connectivity options are offered, customized to meet the needs of your practice. An interface specialist, on-site EHR/EMR integration and Meaningful Use support services are also available.

Count on TOPA for dependable service and pathology results you can trust.

Meeting the needs of your physicians

Board certified, experienced, hospital-based pathologists have a full range of subspecialty expertise.

- Pathologists are always available to you by cell phone or email to discuss cases.
- Pathologists understand the importance of clinicopathologic correlation and treatment implications.
- All new malignancies confirmed by a second pathologist, with results phoned to the physician.
- Clear and concise reports have standardized terminology and digital microscopic images.
- Board certified cytopathologists interpret EUS-FNAs and esophageal brushings.

Cutting edge offerings in diagnostic and prognostic testing.

- Special stains for Helicobacter, fungus, and intestinal metaplasia routinely performed.
- Relevant prognostic and predictive tests performed automatically for expedited results.
 - Mismatch repair protein testing, HER2, KRAS, BRAF, KIT/PDGFRA.
- Same day results for molecular microbiology panels for gastrointestinal pathogens on stool samples.

Meeting the needs of your patients

Services provided to ensure patient satisfaction.

In-house billing specialists to assist patients with billing related inquiries.

Competitive outpatient pricing and patient-friendly cash pay prices.

Patient education brochures available.

For more information, please contact:

Wayne Schultheis, M.D., Medical Director
cell: 818-261-6701
email: wayne.schultheis@topathology.com

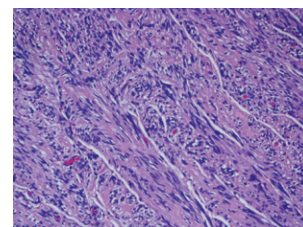

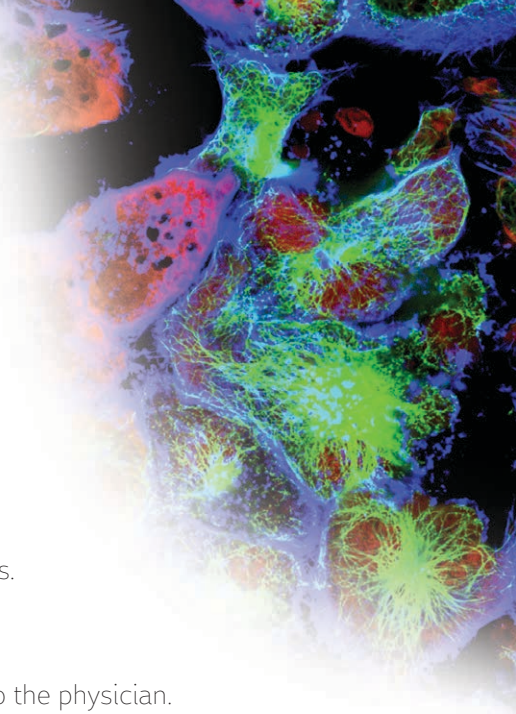

Sarah Williams, Sales Director
cell: 805-279-6609
email: sarah.williams@topathology.com

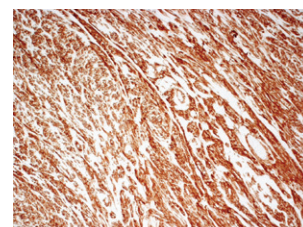

351 Rolling Oaks Drive, Suite 100
Thousand Oaks, CA 91361

Phone: 805.373.8582
Fax: 805. 373.0023
Answering Service: 805.378.7761
Email Client Services at: clientservice@topathology.com

www.topathology.com

GIST

CD117/c-kit